High Potentials 2019

5th edition - Call for candidates

As part of the ADCE 2019 European Creativity Festival, the High Potentials session is an event where 25 young European creative talents present their best work to top agency creatives and HR managers, as well as the general public for a chance to find new career opportunities.

Every young creative will have a limited time (5') on stage and a possibility to participate in the subsequent speed-dating session.

Young Talents Eligibility

Young talents participating in the High Potentials must have a maximum of 2 years working experience in agencies, design studios or other visual communication companies, and be a member of any of the ADCE 22 Creative Clubs.

Application Process

1. Select 1 outstanding piece from your personal work. (work to be presented if selected).
2. Prepare your portfolio + application form
3. Send them to barbara@adceurope.org on or before 20th September.

Final Selection

All portfolios and works will be reviewed by the High Potential's Director Hans-Peter Albrecht to make the final selection. The 2019 High Potentials will be announced and contacted by email on 1st October.

Candidates are strictly asked to present live and personally.

Presentations can be supported by images and/or short videos.
